

Products, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

Premier Products, Inc. warrants its products against defects in workmanship and materials for a period of one year from the date of invoice, as follows:

- a) There are no warranties, express or implied which extend beyond those described herein, and there is no implied warranty of merchantability.
- b) If products should prove to be defective, sellers only responsibility will be to repair or replace the items, and will have no such obligation for any damages of any kind beyond such repair or replacement.
- c) Sellers obligation to repair or replace the defective items terminates one year after the product has been delivered to the buyer, and also terminates at any time anyone other than the seller performs repair, service, or replacement on the item without a prior written agreement.

This warranty does not apply to those products which are subjected to excessive use or abuse. Should you require further information, please contact the writer.

Sincerely,

PREMIER PRODUCTS, INC.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Joey Meggs", is written over a horizontal line.

Joey Meggs
President

JM/br